

GLENELG
GOLF CLUB

Corporate Membership

As businesses search for that competitive edge, there has never been a better time to include Glenelg Golf Club in your corporate strategy. With two different membership options we are sure to fulfil your golfing and corporate relation requirements.

With access to a private championship golf course, practice and members' facilities and state of the art corporate function facilities, Corporate Membership provides you with a platform to entertain clients and discuss business both on and off the course.

Corporate 'Players' Membership

Meets the requirements of those most interested in the golfing aspect with a focus on playing rights and guest entertainment.

Corporate 'Club' Membership

Serves the requirements of those corporate businesses and individuals seeking the 'member' environment and privileges.

Corporate 'Playing' & 'Club' Membership Benefits

- No waiting lists – immediate access
- An account facility for any additional guest green fees, pro shop expenses, food and beverage
- Complimentary room hire of our conference or dining facilities when utilised with any food or beverage package
- Significantly reduced green fees should you wish to hold a Corporate Golf Day at Glenelg Golf Club
- Full reciprocal membership rights should you need to entertain guests interstate at any of our partnering clubs
- At the end of the two year period, the corporation has the opportunity to renew its Corporate Membership or nominate up to two members to join Glenelg Golf Club as a Provisional Member, subject to payment of the current Entrance Fee, deducting two full years from the Full Membership waiting list.

"the pristine condition of the course, home of the SA Golf Classic and Rene Erichsen Salver – South Australia's national trial tournaments this year – is not just an overnight miracle... it takes just one round to fully appreciate the rewards of years of work developing a course to rival the best."

WARREN PARTLAND, Australian Golf Digest – July 2010
